Málaga - A city that offers something for everyone!

Once you have made the decision to study Spanish - the world's 2nd business language, spoken by over 300 million people - the logical place to do so is Spain.

In a land of great contrasts there is nowhere better to learn the language than in the southern region, called Andalucía, in which Málaga is situated. Here you will find the typical images that most people associate with Spain: Flamenco, the white-washed villages (pueblos blancos), Moorish palaces, blue skies, splashes of colourful bougainvillea, bull fights, historic city centres, sun-drenched beaches and, of course, the passion which the Andalusians dedicate to enjoying life!

The famously warm, friendly and extrovert nature of the Andalusian people helps to create excellent teachers and a welcoming atmosphere for those who want to meet the local people and learn about their customs and cultures.

The historic city centre with its winding streets, hundreds of tapas bars and welcoming restaurants retains a totally Spanish atmosphere. The Cathedral and Arab castle complement the rich architectural heritage. As befits Picasso's birthplace there are more than enough galleries, theatres, cinemas and music venues for the artistically inclined, including the Picasso Gallery in the midst of the historic centre.

In addition, Málaga, with the major international airport of the south of Spain, is the focal point of Andalucía's modern motorway network making it ideal for visiting Granada, Sevilla, Córdoba and Ronda and even to spend weekends in Morocco. All of these places are within a couple of hours' travel and feature regularly in our activities programme.

We passionately believe that Málaga is an ideal choice as a place to study Spanish. Why not come and see for yourself and understand why they say "Andalucía - sólo hay una".

“Málaga is an ideal city for a long stay for the purpose of learning Spanish. This is because Málaga benefits from a relaxed life-style and the openness of its people - indispensable factors for learning a language.”

Methodology

Malaca Instituto has three separate but integrated departments responsible for the academic organisation of the school.

1. Research and Development

This department is responsible for the creation of our in-house published textbooks and other supplementary materials which are all in a continual process of up-dating.

Our textbooks form the basic materials for most of the teaching but are also supplemented by other materials created by our staff and supported by additional resources such as TV, radio, music, magazines etc.

They are composed of a series of units, each intended to form an average day's work, with integrated homework exercises. These units lead the students in a structured and progressive manner through the Spanish language.

2. Teaching Department

Our Director of Studies, helped by a team of co-ordinators, plans and organises the day-to-day teaching schedule and the rotation of teachers which is one of the distinctive features of the school.

Our teachers are lively, well-educated, interesting people whose role is to motivate and stimulate the participation of all their students. They must be native speakers of Spanish and have a University degree or comparable experience. Many of our teachers have been with us for a considerable time and are highly experienced in our effective way of teaching Spanish.

3. Teacher training

A team of teacher-trainers reports to the Director of Studies and is responsible for the in-house teacher training programme and teacher refresher courses.

We hold regular workshops and training sessions for our teachers to ensure the best use of the teaching materials and to keep them up-to-date with the latest ideas and tendencies in the teaching of Spanish. We also provide courses for non-native-speaker Teachers of Spanish.

“ I am a teacher and I love learning. I've taken part in many different courses in many different subject areas and this was one of the best (if not the best) in which I have participated. The methodology and the quality of the teaching are outstanding ”

Method

As we have a wide range of different courses with differing objectives, our teaching style varies according to the type of course. Above all we aim to teach our students in an effective, enjoyable and professional manner.

On our main General Spanish courses, we use an eclectic, integrated method combining many aspects of the communicative approach with structured learning of grammar and syntax.

Each day, according to the progress of each class and our detailed course syllabus, a new area of language is introduced and practised in a systematic manner. This involves some elements of traditional teaching methods, as well as classroom activities such as language games, pair work and role-plays aimed at developing communicative fluency. Our students are encouraged to speak in Spanish from the very beginning.

Integrated homework exercises are used to practise and reinforce the previous day's work and our students are also encouraged to make use of our excellent self-access study centre either as a place to do the homework or as a resource facility for further study.

Lesson Times

You will find a list of lesson times under each course. Whether you study in the morning or the afternoon is entirely at the discretion of the school as we want to ensure that you will be in a class at your level with the best possible mix of nationalities.

Quality guarantees

By deciding to study at Malaca Instituto you will be choosing a school which meets the membership criteria of some of the leading quality control organisations and trade associations of the language teaching world. Membership of all these organisations is based on independent, expert inspection and this is your guarantee of our quality.

In addition Malaca Instituto has been nominated during 6 successive years for the industry Star Awards as one of the 5 leading Schools of Spanish in the world, winning the title in 2007, 2009 and 2010.

Instituto Cervantes

Malaca Instituto is an "Accredited Centre" of the Instituto Cervantes, Spain's national cultural institute.

EAQUALS

European Association for Quality Language Services

Malaca Instituto is a Full Member of EAQUALS. The credibility of this extremely rigorous inspection and quality assurance scheme is endorsed by various leading public and private institutions.

IALC

International Association of Language Centres

This leading world association of private language schools also requires schools to pass an inspection before they can apply and regularly thereafter.

EEA

Español en Andalucía

Malaca Instituto is a member of this regional association of schools in Andalucía.

Din CertCo

This prestigious German quality control organisation confirms that Malaca Instituto meets the criteria of the European Norm 14804 for the language travel industry.

Malaca Instituto's courses have also been inspected by or are "recognised" for:

- "Bildungsurlaub" by various German State governments
- American College Academic Credit
- the Swedish State scholarship programme
- the Chinese Embassy in Madrid

Quality control, Examinations and Certificates

In addition to the independent inspections mentioned above, we have our own internal quality control systems of which the questionnaires completed by the students at the end of their course play a very important part. These provide us with the detailed opinions of our clients and are crucial in ensuring that our courses, facilities and services continue to satisfy them.

At the end of each course level on our General Spanish course there is an Examination which students can take outside class hours.

We encourage all our General Course students to take these Exams as they are an excellent way to reinforce their knowledge and the Certificates of Linguistic Competence which are awarded, based on the results, provide an objective statement of the student's level of Spanish.

Continuing students also must take a level test every Friday (during 1 classroom hour) to enable us to place all students in their correct levels for the following week.

Certificates of Attendance are also awarded to all students regularly attending classes.

Mini-campus

Our school facilities are amongst the best to be found in language schools in Spain. The school-buildings and our on-site residence, Club hispánico, form an impressive mini-campus. Here you will find everything you need for your relaxation and studies on one site. As our students tend to spend time on-campus after lessons this creates a very friendly and welcoming atmosphere - the ideal place to make life-long friendships.

Classrooms

There are 25 well appointed classrooms. Each is equipped with comfortable classroom furniture, whiteboards, video and audio and some have fabulous views!

Multimedia Learning Centre

Our Multimedia Learning Centre is a reference library and study facility. There are two sections:

- a traditional study centre with work-sheets, reference books, video and audio cassettes
- a Computer Lab with self access learning materials and internet access

It is designed to help our students to practise and revise individually identified areas of weakness or specific need using the technology and learning method of their choice, and to be able to receive and send e-mails.

Video

Video is available as a teaching support in all the classrooms. In addition students may watch videos of their choice in the Study Centre or may select films from our library in the reception of the Club hispánico and watch them on our large screen in Salón Málaga.

Wi-fi

Free wi-fi is available throughout the campus, including classrooms, terraces and the bedrooms of the Club hispánico. Don't forget to bring a laptop!

Dance Studio

We have a large dance studio equipped with wooden floor, practice mirrors, sound system and air conditioning. It has acoustic dividers to allow us to vary the size of the space according to the number of participants. Here we offer dance classes as an activity or as part of our Spanish & Dance courses, as well as our highly popular aerobic and keep-fit classes.

Restaurant

During the week the restaurant is open at lunchtime (all year) and in the evenings as well for most of the year. At the weekend it is open only on Sunday evening. It serves freshly prepared fish, meat and pasta dishes at very reasonable prices.

Bar

The spacious bar, decorated in typical Andalusian style, is the students' favourite meeting point. It serves breakfast and then snacks and drinks throughout the day. It is not only a place to meet, drink and chat, but you can also play chess, dominoes, pool, table-tennis, watch TV, etc. During the week it is open all day; at the weekend for breakfast and Sunday evening.

Multi-use rooms

Salón Andalucía: here we have cultural talks with wide-screen video, concerts, dance shows, theme dinners and parties. It also has our practice kitchen for the Spanish + Cookery course and also for other occasional cookery lessons.

Salón Málaga: our 24-hour student lounge. Internet access via 2 fixed computers and wi-fi, large screen video with a video library, snacks and drinks machines. (Access is only for students living in the Club after 22.00)

Sun Terraces, Swimming Pool

There are 3 large sun terraces for relaxation and for doing your homework in the open air. One of these is by the side of the swimming pool. For those of you who prefer to relax on the beach, this is only 15 minutes' walk away.

Club Hispánico

This is our 102 - bedroom residence. Many of our students live here on the same site as the school and this ensures that the atmosphere is always very lively, friendly and welcoming (see page 24).

Mini-Gym

A small work-out area with professional standard exercise machines.

Intensive Course

This is our standard 4 lesson per day programme of general Spanish. It is offered at all levels from total beginner to advanced and covers all aspects of the Spanish language.

Students wanting a slightly more intensive version with an emphasis on spoken skills can choose to add the oral communications skill option and study for 24 or 26 lessons per week.

As described on page 4 the teaching programme has been carefully designed to provide an intensive, progressive course, with a good balance between the various skills and continual practice of the new points introduced each day. Each day's class work is further reinforced by an average of 1-2 hours of integrated homework.

The course is offered in progressive weekly modules. While the average stay is around 6-8 weeks, we frequently have students studying for 6 months or more. Students who wish to enrol for longer than this should consider the Hispanic Studies programme.

In advanced classes there are also introductory lessons on Spanish culture, history, geography, etc. If you would like to study these subjects in greater depth see "Spanish plus Hispanic Studies" on page 14.

Exam & Pathway Courses

Entry to Post-Graduate Degrees

In today's competitive world, many students decide that they need more than just an Undergraduate Degree: they want a Master's Degree as well. Some decide to take this in another country and some of these decide to take it in Spain.

Master's programmes are for 1 or 2 years of full-time study and require 60 (1 year) or 120 (2 year) European Credits (ECTS). Each university has differing entry procedures and sometimes specific requirements. We will help you in this process as long as you enrol for at least 4 months study with us. The linguistic preparation will usually include an Intensive course and probably DELE Exam preparation and/or Spanish for Academic Purposes.

Vocational Training

Students who have successfully completed high school may enrol for Higher Vocational Training programmes (Formación Profesional Superior).

These lead to government-recognised qualifications in a wide range of subjects after a 2-year training course. These qualifications can also be used to access certain Undergraduate Degrees as a first year student.

Spanish for Academic Purposes

One-to-One

For the business or professional person with specific objectives, a limited time frame and frequently with highly developed preferred learning strategies, individual tuition is frequently the best option.

Courses are based around Malaca Instituto's own teaching materials and can be tailored to the needs of the individual student, in terms of both professional needs and preferred learning strategies. One-to-one lessons are usually at the rate specified on the fee sheet. However we do reserve the right to increase these charges in the case of highly specific programmes needing special preparation.

One-to-One courses can start on any Monday of the year on which the school is open and can be for 1 week or longer. If you choose this option please complete the Professional/Linguistic Questionnaire found on Insert 4 and return it with your Application Form.

Combined Courses

Increasingly we have professional clients who decide to take a combination of an Intensive Course and 1-1 and thus gain the benefits of group interaction and social networking and the specificity and intensity of individual tuition. These programmes work especially well in Malaca Instituto as the average age of our students on Intensive group courses outside the summer is higher than in most schools and therefore well-suited to professional people.

Closed groups

We are frequently requested to create "tailor-made" programmes of general or specific Spanish for a group of people with similar aims, objectives and level of Spanish. Typical groups are made up of teachers looking for refresher training, high-school or university classes or small groups of professional people.

Spanish for Teachers

This is a one or two-week refresher course for practising, non-native-speaking, Teachers of Spanish.

Over the years Malaca Instituto has gained considerable experience in providing courses for teachers. These have been both “open-enrolment” programmes and tailor-made courses for pre-formed groups. Many have been funded from the Comenius programme.

This course combines 20 lessons per week of the Intensive course at an advanced level with 10 lessons per week of methodology.

The aim is to refresh the language and teaching skills of overseas teachers of Spanish. The methodology classes will take the form of workshops, presentations, debates, etc. all led by our trainers but expecting a high level of active participation and in-put from the participating teachers. The intention being to create a forum for the interchange of ideas and materials.

The content of the methodology lessons may include items such as:

- Ice breakers
- Stimulating interaction in the classroom
- Language games
- Alternative ideas for teaching grammar points

The programme is generally intended for teachers teaching in secondary schools. However a primary level teacher with the level of Spanish required could benefit from the programme.

We understand that in most European countries such a course meets the requirements of the Comenius Fund.

Closed group courses

We can create tailor-made courses for groups of teachers at any time of the year. These can also include “shadowing”. Please ask for details.

Summer Course

This course has been designed for the young adult (aged 16 to 20) who wants a study vacation at a very reasonable price. It is a classic combination of language course with a programme of cultural, social and sporting activities, and is a lot of fun!

The teaching method is fundamentally the same as on the Intensive Course but the course materials have been modified to take into account the different interests of this age group.

Despite these small changes, this is a serious language course and the students still have to complete daily homework assignments as described on page 4.

The teaching is always scheduled to take place in the afternoon, usually from 16.00-19.00, leaving plenty of time either side for excursions, sun-bathing, parties and siestas, not to mention homework!

Malaca Instituto Examinations take place every 2 weeks during lesson time.

At the weekend, the participants on this course can take advantage of a full-day excursion, which is included in the cost of the course.

Intensive Courses

Please note that the Intensive Courses continue throughout the Summer. Please see page 8.

“ I couldn't recommend a better holiday! I made friends with people from all over the world as we participated in a whole load of activities together, inside and outside the classroom. Learning a language has never been such fun ”

“ Dear Mrs Willadsen,
The organisation of the Institute, the excellence of the teachers, and the methods of instruction, are without any doubt unsurpassable. The excursions showed us the Spanish way of life, and parts of Málaga, we had never seen before.
We have already bored our friends to death extolling the praises of every aspect of our stay, including the enthusiasm and the patience of the teachers, and have recommended the Institute to every one we know.
We shall be back as soon as possible.”

Lifestyle Courses

Spanish & Dance

These are 1 or 2 week courses combining our Intensive Course of general Spanish with 2 lessons per day of dance classes.

Spanish and Salsa

In recent years there has been a huge world-wide resurgence of interest in all forms of "latin" dance. This has resulted in a tremendous success for our Spanish courses combined with Salsa and other Latin dance forms.

Spanish and Flamenco

Andalucia is the cradle of Flamenco – a passionate art form which is one of the key influences of Andalusian culture. There are 3 areas of flamenco: Baile (dance), Cante (singing), Toque (guitar and rhythm). We concentrate on teaching dance.

This is an introductory programme and aims to teach the steps of the Sevillanas and some other typical Flamenco movements. We want our students to be able to impress their Spanish friends with their interest in and knowledge of their culture.

Both courses combine an Intensive Course of Spanish at any level with 2 lessons per day of dance.

You may study for 1 or 2 weeks (or combine this with a longer course of Intensive Spanish) – please see the dates and fees inserts to check the starting dates.

Once you have taken our dance course, if you wish to continue to perfect your dance skills we can recommend local dance schools to you.

These courses are offered on specific dates which you will find detailed on Insert 1 and occasionally you can combine Salsa and Flamenco and enrol for 4 weeks.

Your level of Spanish does not matter as you will join an Intensive Course (see page 8) at your particular level. The dance classes are for beginners or those with a little knowledge.

Dance Studio

The Dance Studio has a purpose-built wooden floor, air conditioning, sound system and practice mirrors. Adjustable partitioning allows lessons to be given in smaller or larger spaces according to need.

Salsa and Sevillana classes continue to be offered once or twice a week as a part of our social programme for those who do not want an intensive programme.

Spanish & Internships

In today's business environment the ability to communicate in several languages is essential. However, young people and employers are increasingly looking for more than this. They want inter-cultural business skills of the sort that can only be gained by working in different countries.

Malaca Instituto organizes professional internships in Málaga. These are un-paid internships and the programme is intended to be for a minimum of 3 months. Students must also take a minimum of 4 weeks Spanish but this can coincide with the first 4 weeks of the internship. It should be understood that a student's ability in Spanish is one of the primary criteria in determining the type of work placement possible.

Professional and business sectors

The Internships can be in different professional areas and we find the following to be amongst the most popular:

- Marketing and advertising
- Design
- Hotel industry
- Tourism
- Medical services
- Educational sector
- Private and Public Institutions
- Gastronomy

Malaca Instituto will follow-up and monitor each student to ensure that they are happy in their work practice and are gaining the experience necessary to meet their objectives.

It should be noted that these work experience placements are not remunerated and that a fee is payable for the placement and monitoring service.

This programme offers an exceptional career enhancing opportunity for young people. If this sounds like the programme you are looking for please ask for further information.

Host Families & Student Apartments

For the serious student who is prepared to be flexible and wants to live a truly Spanish lifestyle during his/her stay in Málaga, living with a host family can be the best option.

You will eat Spanish food (at times when Spaniards eat), meet Spanish people and have an excellent opportunity to practise your newly acquired Spanish in real-life situations.

In exchange for these benefits you have to fit in with the way of life and customs of your host family and this sometimes requires a great deal of tact and flexibility.

Some of our host families live in private houses with gardens, others in town houses or flats: most are within walking distance of the School and, if not, a maximum of 30 minutes travel. They have all been carefully selected and visited by our staff.

We offer Host Family accommodation on a half-board basis in single and twin rooms.

Student Apartments: Types A & B

This is the most economical option. You can choose between types A and B according to your taste and budget.

You share an apartment with up to 5 other students. You can choose to have a single or twin room and you share a kitchen and other facilities with the other students.

The students are responsible for general cleaning and our staff visit once every 2 weeks to clean the general areas and sheets are changed weekly.

The apartments are only for students aged 18 years and over and we suggest that someone aged 30 or over will prefer the higher level of comfort provided by the Type A apartments.

Student Apartments can only be booked for 2-8 weeks. Once in Málaga you can extend your stay but we must have 4 weeks' notice.

The minimum guaranteed facilities and conditions of the two types of apartments are as shown below:

Student Apartments

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Within 10 minutes walk of school</li> <li>• High quality furnishings</li> <li>• Air conditioning</li> <li>• Access to swimming pool (May-October)</li> <li>• Fully equipped shared kitchen</li> <li>• Safe deposit boxes in each room</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Within 30 minutes walk of school</li> <li>• Easy access to transport and shops</li> <li>• Comfortable furnishings</li> </ul>

Individual Apartments

For clients who would like an apartment exclusively for themselves we can sometimes rent other apartments.

Social programme and excursions

In addition to studying Spanish you will want to learn about Spain, see the countryside of Andalucía, eat Spanish food, meet Spanish people and visit the great cities.

We help you to do all this and more! We organise visits to Córdoba, Granada, Sevilla and Ronda, to the white-washed villages like Nerja and Frigiliana. We take you to Africa for the weekend to show you at first hand a little of the modern-day Moroccan culture that in the past had such an influence in forming the traditions, way of life and architectural heritage that we see in Andalucía and Málaga today.

We prepare paella together, go walking in the mountains; we teach you to dance Sevillanas and how to cook Gazpacho and Tortilla; we bring musicians and dancers to the school for "fiestas" and generally help you to meet people, make friends and enjoy your stay in Málaga.

We also provide you with all the information that you need to make the most of Málaga's excellent sports and social facilities.

Rent a Car & play Golf

To make the most of the 40 or more golf courses on the Costa del Sol, you will need your own transport. Only one course (par 9) can easily be reached by public transport.

Many students make use of the special hire-car rates we have with Europcar.

Sports

The Mediterranean climate makes Málaga, and Andalucía in general, the perfect destination for sports enthusiasts. Most sports are available. Here are some examples:

- Golf: Amongst a wide range of sports available golf is without any doubt, the most popular and important. There are around 40 golf courses within 2 hours drive of Málaga, many of them championship level courses.
- Tennis: Courts are available a short walk from the school.
- Jogging: there is a jogging track of compacted sand on the beaches leading towards the city centre.
- Fitness training: Malaca Instituto has its own mini-gym with professional-level workout machines.
- Skiing: From December to May it is usually possible to ski in the Sierra Nevada, about 2 hours from Málaga.
- Aerobics: Students can participate free of charge each weekday in a variety of aerobic type classes.
- Hiking: Within 30 min. drive of the city centre you can walk in the mountains on clearly marked trails.

How to get to Málaga

By Air

Málaga International Airport is 20 minutes by taxi from the school and has excellent links with many European cities.

By Car

You follow the signs to Málaga and then take the "Ronda" (ring road) of Málaga towards Motril. You take the exit marked "Pedregalejo" immediately after a tunnel (Túnel, Cerrado de Calderón) and one minute later you arrive in Cerrado de Calderón. Here we suggest you ask for Club Hispánico.
